FOREWORD

Twelve years have past now, since we, a group of young, frightened children, entered the first grade. It was a very important day to us, as we were ready to begin our education.

We learned to work, as well as play together. We learned that there was one thing everyone must have - and that is friends. Without friends and co-operation we knew we could not accomplish very much. And so we completed our grade school work.

The next fall, we entered high school. This was a great sensation to us, that after six years of hard working, we were finally entering high school.

Now, we are at last Seniors. To some of us, this will be an end to our school education, but to others it will be a beginning of a new and definite education.

The past twelve school years have been pleasant ones. Ones that we will always remember, not as individuals, but as a class, a united group.

So remembering all the fun and good times we have enjoyed together, we are publishing our ideas, thoughts, and activities in this yearbook. As you read through this book, we hope that you will remember us, the Senior Class of '49; and enjoy reading this book as much as we have enjoyed publishing it.

DEDICATION

OUR

LOIS
KEMP

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and forty-nine, feel deeply honored in dedicating this fourth issue of the Criterion to our Class Sponsor, Miss Lois E. Kemp.

She has been advisor of the Criterion for the past four years and will always be remembered for the long hours and ever-tiring work she has done.

We will remember her always as a kindhearted, well-educated person who stood by us whether things were cheerful or sad, whether we were smart or ignorant, or whether we were wealthy or poor.

We do not know what we would have done without Miss Kemp's guiding leadership through our Senior year, and to show our appreciation we are dedicating this book to her.

We, the Senior Class, will remember her not only as our Class Sponsor, but as a willing and wonderful friend.

FACULTY

IN REMEMBRANCE

BUILDING A TEMPLE

A builder builded a temple
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said as they saw its beauty
"It shall never know decay,
Great is thy skill, O builder;
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew her wondrous plan,
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumpled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is a child's immortal soul.

IN MEMORIAL

We take a moment of silence in remembrance of our dearly beloved teacher, Miss Clara F. Harris, who passed away on January ninth, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Miss Harris was the teacher of the fifth grade and had taught at Jefferson School for nineteen years. She was close to all our hearts, and all who knew her, loved her.

She gave most of her life to the teaching of small children. She was at all times ready to assist anyone who was in need of help. She was a kindhearted, unselfish, loving person and will remain forever in the hearts and memories of the students, parents, and employees of Jefferson Township.

CO-OPERATION OR CHAOS?

It is Commencement season again and Jefferson High is presenting to our community another class of boys and girls to take up the work of our adult citizenry.

There is a perennial question always in the minds of teachers and parents alike, namely: Are these graduates prepared for the complex tasks of life ahead?

In these past war days of adjustment and readjustment we know that the job of getting along harmoniously with our fellowmen is difficult. The chance for progress and ultimate success is ever present. However, in 1949 it is partially hidden amidst the barriers of economics, creeds, and classes.

Experts of Sociology and Government tell us that we have been waging a "Cold War" against those who do not think and act as we do. Certainly on both the domestic and foreign fronts we have been playing a sort of "stalling game."

What happens with regard to world peace, national solidarity, and economic stability will depend upon the intelligent straight-forward thinking of an increasing proportion of our people.

Strong co-operation and a willingness to sacrifice will determine our fate. Naturally, we will not all see alike - nor should we. However, if we are to keep our great country a strong free leader, we must be ever watchful for the small "isms" and "quirks" which are a cancerous growth to the organisms of our life and society.

Our graduating Seniors have been taught to co-operate with their teachers and under-classmen. They have been indoctrinated with the ideals of honesty and fair-play. For twelve years they have been following teachers' directions with the constant privilege of exerting their own minds and expressing their individual opinions. This is Democracy.

Our school is not perfect. Possibly our graduates do not "measure up" as high as they should. It is too late now for us to do anything for them in the way of formal education at J.H.S.

The challenge of "sincerity to work and purpose" fixes itself firmly upon the pupils yet in school. If the graduating Seniors did not make the most of their educational opportunities, then it is time for their successors to awaken. If parents need to give more encouragement through proper home discipline, now is the time to commence. If industry and the professions desire higher standards of education and personal integrity, now is the time to turn down the incompetent neophytes seeking positions. In other words what we are is what we are content with being. The schools are yours - what they are is a part of you.

Let us all face the truth. The truth never hurt anyone. The truth sometimes is hard to face without embarrassment, but it shouldn't be. If we would but assign ourselves to the task of discovering the truth and then abiding by it, many of our big problems would dissolve themselves.

Yes, we are living in an interesting, challenging atomic age. Scientific strides have outdistanced moral virtues. Tangible values are outweighing intangibles. If we are not quick to make the necessary adjustments we are headed for chaos.

Our Seniors have as their motto: "Truth Gives Wings To Success." I for one have respect for and confidence in our youth. I am willing to cast my lot with them. I feel sure that they will work unceasingly to clear up our "world befuddlement". They know how to work and co-operate. Through their co-operation we will avert chaos.

Best Wishes Class of 1949.

Herschel W. Sanders, Superintendent.

CLASS HISTORY

A few years ago, we wondered if this year would ever reach us. Now that it is here, we can hardly believe our eyes. We have finally come to the closing year of our school life. Twelve long years ago we were just beginning our drudgery, as we called it. Our mothers scrubbed our faces until they shone and neatly combed our hair, then kissed us good-bye and off we trotted to school.

The girls who started to school that day and are still with us are as follows: Dorothy Thompson, La Verne Diggs, Donna Brown, Peggy Zurwell, Lola Harshman, June Keller, Joan Melody, and Jean Arthur.

The boys who are still here are the following: Dick Steele, Jim Clark, Bud Stegall, Charles Andy, Virgil Petry, Jim Juday, Howard Ford, Bob Bottoms, Bob Copenhefer, and Bill Markley.

In the fifth grade we acquired a new girl. Her name was Marilyn Mann. She moved here from Richmond, Indiana.

In the sixth grade we got another new girl. Her name was Martha Eales. She was also from Richmond, Indiana.

Then in the eighth grade came another girl. She came to our gang from Hollansburg. Her name was Berneice Martin.

We skipped a few years then until our Junior year. Here a wind blew in from way out west. It brought us Lawrence Nickelson, from Tucson, Arizona.

Then last, but not least, was at the beginning of this final year. We made room for another boy, Leland Federico. He joined our group from Richmond, Indiana.

This about sums up our twelve years of schooling that we dreaded so much, but, next year when the school bell rings and we see the new first graders going to school with their shiny faces and neatly combed hair, we'll all be wishing we were in their shoes again, just for a day.

DAYTON JAUNT

It was a cold, foggy day on October 26, when twenty-three excited Seniors started for Dayton. This had been the day we had been looking forward to for so many years. Now, finally it had come.

The first load to start in this heavy fog was chauffeured by Howard Ford. His passengers were Bob Copenhefer, Dick Steele, Bob Bottoms, Virgil Petry, and Jim Clark.

Following this carload were Jim Juday and Leland Federico, a "Crosley-carload."

The next group to leave was Bud Stegall and his passengers. They were Lawrence Nickelson, Bill Markley, Charles Andy, June Keller, and Joan Melody.

These three groups left about 8:30 so they would be at the studio in time for our first appointment, which was at 9:30.

Later on, Dorothy Thompson left with her gang. This group was scheduled for the 10:30 appointment we had. Her passengers included Peggy Zurwell, Donna Brown, La Verne Diggs, Lola Jane Harshman, and Martha Eales.

The last group to leave was Miss Kemp's crowd. They included Marilyn Mann, Berneice Martin, and Jean Arthur.

After we had our pictures taken, some of us went shopping. Others just looked over the town. Dinner was eaten and then the boys went to the Mayfair Theater. Some of the girls went to a picture show, while Miss Kemp and the rest of the girls went to the Sunny-Side Up Radio Show. They had great fun, especially La Verne and Lola, being contestants, Lola was successful in winning one dollar and La Verne won the jack pot of four dollars.

ONE MAN'S TROUBLES

Once there was a Harsh man,
Whose name was Handy Andy,
He lived in Federico Town,
A village fine and dandy.

He bought a Steele jalopy
A Brown and orange Ford.
He'd take a drive to Arthur Ville
Whenever he got bored.

One day he went to Arthur Ville
And thinking he was clever
Home he came - Tied to his Ford
Was a fat new Copen hefer

As he was driving along the road
His Ford got out of control
He jerked and swerved and skidded
Then rammed a telephone pole!

Poor Handy was badly shaken up
As for the cow you can guess
And to say the least - the colored Ford
Was one big healthy mess!'

So up he got - and home did trot
His cow with him was bringing
He felt so happy that
Halfway home, he started in a-singing.

This Mann and cow became good friends
And Handy named her Juday.
Although her Keller was kinda queer
She was christened "The Village Cutie."

Now, help was needed to care for the cow.
Topsy Bottoms was given the task.
"I can only pay you in Nickel son,
Is that too much to ask?"

"Not if you pay me enough of them
I think the wage will be swell."
So Handy agreed and added this chore
You can also, Diggs Zur well.

Then Topsy neglected Juday next day
While he was diggin' and sweatin'
Juday got sick, Dock Markley was called
And Nurse Thompson was stewin' and frettin'.

All of their efforts-alas-were in vain
Juday died with a Melody singing.
They had the funeral the very next day
At eve when the cow-bells were ringing.

Undertaker Petry made all the plans
He knew Handy's fondness for Juday
So had inscribed on a Clark monument,
"In Memory of the "Village Cutie."

The master was all broken up over this
For a man can't help how he feels
So he decided to take a trip to the sea
And visit the Martins, Stegalls (Seagulls) and Eales.

Now Handy's away on a nice long trip
And Miss Kemp is keeping his house.
So I'll travel on to my hole in the wall
For you see, I'm a bad little mouse!

CANNERY MISERY

They say ambitious people go places; so, a few of the Seniors decided they would try it. We started out for the tomato cannery at New Madison, on September 28, 1948. It was very chilly that morning, but we didn't mind.

We all trudged in, with our big rubber boots on, ready and anxious. At first the odor was terrific but we soon got used to that. The boss told us where the office was. This was where we were given tags with our names on them. These were for keeping track of how many bucketfuls of tomatoes we peeled. Rubber aprons were also given to us.

Some of the boys had snap-jobs; working upstairs, at least the odor wasn't quite so bad.

Tomatoes, tomatoes and more tomatoes. We peeled so many we thought we would see them in our dreams for the rest of our lives.

Some of us quit work about two hours after dinner. This wasn't quitting time, but we girls just couldn't take it any longer. We turned in our aprons and our cards and then washed up. Since the boys were not through yet, we went out and sat in the cars.

Soon the boys were done and we said goodbye to the tomatoes (some other girls were working there) and departed.

The few boys who did not go to the cannery, picked up potatoes at Jordan's one day. They turned in the money they made that day, just as we had at the cannery. With these two projects we got off to a flying start for our Senior year.

"J" BOOKS

At the first of the year the Senior Class was anxious to go to Washington. So, in order to do this, we knew we had to make some money.

There was a project that had been mentioned several times but had never been carried through; so, we decided to try it. A committee was chosen to see several printers in Richmond. Miss Kemp made a phone call to the Lewisburg Leader office.

The next thing we knew we were selling "J" books. These little books contained just about everything you wanted to know in the line of school activities. They were made up of a Senior Page, containing officers of the class, class members, our motto, colors, flower, and class sponsor. Next, was the Faculty page, and following this were the officers of the under-classmen. On the next page the organizations were mentioned with their cabinet officers. Then came the school calendar. In the back of the book was the Basketball Schedule, school song, pep song, two yells, the names of the Board of Education, the bus drivers, the cafeteria cooks, and the janitors. The very last page of the book was for notes for the owner's use.

These "J" books sold for twenty-five cents each. They brought us a fairly good profit and we hope everyone enjoyed them.

GOING AWAY PRESENT

As you all know, graduating classes always leave some article to their school before they graduate. After much discussion our class finally made up our minds. We are presenting a new showcase with a fluorescent light inserted. We hope you will like this new attraction, and that whenever you are at the schoolhouse and you see this purchase of ours, that you will remember the good old class of nineteen hundred and forty-nine. . .

MIMICK ELECTION

On election day, November 2, our school had an election of our own. We set up long tables in the Senior Room and had Seniors for the election board. Miss Kemp, the Senior Sponsor made ballots for us to elect President, Vice-President, and other political nominees. At the bottom of the ballot, there was a space for voting on the field house that was to be set up at Eaton.

We had private booths along one side of the room, for voting. In these booths were little stands with pencils on them. Grades seven through twelve were eligible to vote. The Faculty also took time to cast their votes.

After counting up the votes, the returns were given over the P.A. System. The result for the presidential election was Dewey over Truman and for Vice-Presidency was Warren over Barkley. This proved to be very interesting and educational, as it gave all of us a good experience.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE
Presented by Senior Class
April 21-22

You liked the Wilsons, because their life was even more complicated than yours could ever be, for they might have been the people down the block or around the corner. There was hen-pecked Mr. Wilson, ruled by the unbending hand of his wife and sister-in-law, interested in dramatics, and influenced by the beautiful Theresa Gant, the outstanding community actress. And Tommy Wilson, who, with his pal Ted Stokes, sympathizes heartily with his Dad's position. And Mary Wilson, under the domination of her aunt and mother; not to mention her chum Marie; Marie's secret sweetheart, Wilbert Wiggins, and the local wrestler, "Muscles" O'Rourke. But that isn't all, for a full evening of fun unfolded when Mrs. Wilson and Aunt Gertrude decided to have Mary take Wilbert Wiggins to the local club dance, which broke her date with her escort for the evening. But Tommy, Ted, and Mr. Wilson, unknown to one another, had arranged dates for her. While in the meantime, Miss Alstead Billings had come to interview Mary for a position of secretary, and Mary had to prove she needed the position very badly. But when Tommy learned that his father had arranged Mary's date with Chuck, and Mary panned off Wilbert on Marie, the situation really became complicated. Tommy and Ted finally hit the plan of having Tommy impersonate a woman to attend the dance with "Muscles", so that he wouldn't become angry. Situation piled upon situation, until the outcome was almost unbelievable. But everyone agreed, "It Was A Great Life."

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

In May, 1969, we, the Detective Agency of Moore and Wesler, were hired by a former member of the Class of 1949 to find out the occupations and whereabouts of his old classmates. This is what we found.

The enormously wealthy Mr. Virgil Petry called us to his office in the Empire State Building in New York City and told us to spare no expense in our search, as he had millions. It seems he made all his money by inventing a sure-fire grower for bald heads; but he's completely bald, it didn't work on him.

Our first clue took us to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. There, by careful investigation, we found to our surprise that Berneice Martin was a strip tease dancer at the "Hotsy-Totsy Night Club." She told us to contact Laverne Diggs, who was with the "Barnum and Bailey Circus" at Cleveland, Ohio, because she knew the whereabouts of several old classmates. The next day we went to Cleveland. We found that Laverne, now Mrs. Paul DeBoo, was the featured tight-rope performer with the circus. She greeted us very cordially and gave us many leads in our search. We left Cleveland and started south by automobile for Columbus, Ohio. Upon reaching Columbus we stopped at a place called "Bob's Beannery," and who do you suppose was manager of the place? Why, our old friend Bob Bottoms, of course; although, you would never recognize him, as he only weighed three hundred and twenty pounds. He fed us wonderful food and told us where to find Jim Clark. We went to a large church and to our amazement we were greeted by Reverend Clark. His fingers were covered with diamonds; it seems the collection plate pays well. He invited us to be his guests overnight. At his home we were met by his charming wife, the former Marilyn Mann, who was also covered with jewels. They took us to the prize fight that night. As the gong sounded, there, attired in purple trunks, and coming out fighting was another classmate, Bill Markley; known in the fight ring as "Muscles Markley."

Continuing our search the next day, we stopped at Dayton. "Muscles" had told us we would find Howard Ford there. Upon inquiry, we found that the huge, pink marble "Dimple Doll" factory was owned by Howard. He always did like to fool around dolls.

On we journeyed to our old home town of New Paris. There we found several of the Class of '49'. Our first stop was at the "new" school building. We found that the superintendent was none other than Jane Keller. She had married Myron Arnett and was the proud mother of twelve children. So you can see why New Paris finally got a new school building. June urged us to stay for the program that was to be given in the auditorium. To our great enjoyment, it was "Jolly Juday and His Trained Fleas." Jim was touring the midwest with his flea circus. We went backstage after the show and Jim told us he was happily married and that his wife raised dogs to keep him well supplied with fleas. Going to the main section of town we found it greatly changed. The main industry being the manufacturing of bubble gum, under the supervision of Dorothy Thompson Eales. She surely could demonstrate her product. We inquired about Charles Andy and were sent to the midget race track at Richmond, Indiana. There we found old Charley in his Offenhouser, going round and round the track. He was almost as large as his car. He said he raced in the summer and sold Fuller Brushes in the winter. We wished him luck and continued on our way to Chicago, Illinois.

We found Martha Eales running the "Slippery Eel Night Club." Two of her featured entertainers were Peggy Zurwell and Jean Arthur. They were billed as "The Hula Hicks"; their specialty being a sensational grass skirt number. As we were enjoying the show, we heard a disturbance and saw the bouncer putting a rowdy customer out the door. We thought we recognized the bouncer, and sure enough, it was Bud Stegall. While talking to Bud afterwards, he told us that he had gotten all his strength from eating Wheaties, three times a day.

Traveling westward we passed through several states, but could find no further clues. Stopping in a small mountain town, we saw a man coming down the street pushing a push cart. He looked very sad and forlorn. We recognized him as Bob Copenhefer. He was the official garbage collector of Horseshoe Bend, Colorado. Having had an unhappy love affair, he had turned to garbage collecting to soothe his aching heart. Bob told us he had seen Joan Melody traveling through the town with a band. We traced her to Denver and found that she was the featured tuba player with a band called "The Toothless Tooters." When not playing the tuba, she was featured in an act as a snake charmer.

We found that our old friend Dick Steele had really lived up to his name. He was in jail in Carson City, Nevada. Seems he was raising canaries for a living, but instead of buying bird seed, he would steal it. He got caught and was to be defended in court by that up-and-coming lawyer, Lawrence Nickelson, known around the West as "Dishonest Nick." He had only been married four times and was living in Reno, Nevada since he spent so much time there anyway. Also in Reno, we found the former Donna Lou Brown working in a gambling casino. She was married to a gambler and they were really rolling in the dough. They were trying to get enough money to come back to Ohio and buy a farm so they could raise hogs.

Our search had now narrowed down to two members. We started toward Mexico because we had heard that Lola Harshman was a bull-fighter down there. We found her in Mexico City and she invited us to watch her performance. She was very good and really knew how to throw the bull. It was quite a jump from the New Paris telephone exchange.

One more now remained to be found. We traveled miles and miles until we reached the Smoky Mountains. There we came upon a shack surrounded by chenille bedspreads, which were for sale. We stopped to buy one and were shocked to see that the aging man who hobbled out was LeRoy de Federico. He made chenille spreads and sold them for a living. LeRoy told us that he used to make mountain brew but couldn't keep from drinking it all himself, so he had switched to making bedspreads.

Our search being ended, we returned to New York City with our report to Mr. Virgil Petry. And were rewarded with--you guessed it--one bottle of hair grower!.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the twenty-three, ambitious souls of the Senior Class of 1949, are expecting to graduate and want to pass on our most highly treasured possessions, traits, and nonsense, to the poor bewildered class of nineteen hundred and fifty we now give you these dear memories of ours, to have and to hold until you in turn pass them on. We sincerely hope that you will treasure them dearly and keep them forever above the ground.

You may have our poorly lighted dungeon and our green wastepaper can. Also we leave our blackboards, erasers (what's left of them), and a few measly pieces of white chalk. Then, too, you can have our faulty window shades that never warn you when they are about to fall down.

Now comes our personal wills:

I, Charles Richard Andy, do hereby will and bequeath my baseball ability to Bud Burden. (Keep 'em pitchin', Bud).

I, Jean Elizabeth Arthur, do hereby will and bequeath my hot temper and liking to argue to Lillian Bonnett.

I, Robert Eugene Bottoms, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to "fall" from one grade to another to Pete Smith.

I, Donna Lou Brown, do hereby will and bequeath my "Hookey Days" to Doris Johnson.

I, James Edward Clark, do hereby will and bequeath my good humor and witty sayings to Norman Watts.

I, Robert Paul Copenhefer, do hereby will and bequeath my studiness and good manners to Bob Leisure. (Make good use of this, Bob).

I, LaVerne Diggs, do hereby will and bequeath my glamorous figure and "snazzy bangs" to Louise Fussner.

I, Martha Adelaide Eales, do hereby will and bequeath my art ability to Joan Williams.

I, Leland Jack Federico, do hereby will and bequeath my "Don Juan charm" to Denver Martin.

I, Howard Leon Ford, do hereby will and bequeath my six-syllabled words to Herschel Snyder. ("Baffle them, Hersh".)

I, Lola Jane Harshman, do hereby will and bequeath my square dancing ability to Jeanne Moore. (Swing your partner, Jeanne).

I, James Eugene Juday, do hereby will and bequeath my puniness to "Charles Atlas, the second", Jim Tewell.

I, June Mae Keller, do hereby will and bequeath my quietness to the loud-mouthed Donna Wallen.

I, Marilyn June Mann, do hereby will and bequeath my kitchen work to Dorothy Freck. (Start peelin' those spuds, Dorothy).

I, William Lawrence Markley, do hereby will and bequeath my ambition to become a hermit to Melvin Diggs.

I, Anne Berneice Martin, do hereby will and bequeath my calmness and soft laugh to Jacqueline Hopkins. (Here's hoping it helps).

I, Joan Ellen Melody, do hereby will and bequeath my piano pecking for the chorus, to Deborah Jurgens. (Be careful of the Lost Chord, Deb.)

I, Lawrence Eugene Nickelson, do hereby will and bequeath my speediness to "poky" Noel Bryant. (Step on it, Noel).

I, Virgil Petry, Jr., do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go with 7th and 8th grade girls to Gordon Arnold.

I, Richard Le Roy Steele, do hereby will and bequeath my reckless driving and good luck to Duane Arnett.

I, Everett Eugene Stegall, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play Basketball to Philip Nelson.

I, Dorothy Jean Thompson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get "Pandas" to Patty Stemple.

I, Peggy Annabelle Zurwell, do hereby will and bequeath my smallness to Jacqueline Reid. (Take care of my diet, Jack).

JUNIOR NEWS

School opened this year with a total of 28 Juniors. During the third week of school, we welcomed Jimmy Tewell from Dupoint.

Class officers were elected during the second week of school. They were as follows:

President	Philip Nelson
Vice-Président	Gordon Arnold
Secretary	Deborah Jurgens
Treasurer	Doris Johnson
Reporter	Louise Fussner

Our class colors are rose and white. Our class motto is: "We pull the most, when we pull together."

Our Junior Class Play was a big success. It was held October 21, and 22. Our play was a three-act mystery-comedy called, "This Night Beware." It took place in a hotel in the mountains. A group of young people were having a ghost party. Marthy Hawk and Tod Miller were there to welcome them. Johanna Gowdie and the ghosts held suspense during the play.

The characters were as follows:

Tod Miller	Philip Nelson
Marthy Hawk	Louise Fussner
Velma Baine	Deborah Jurgens
Harriet Hotchkiss	Jeanne Moore
Tommy Meadow	Jimmy Tewell
Alan Blain	Duane Arnett
Sukey Simms	Doris Johnson
Lazarus	Bob Leisure
Nan Cartier	Barbara Cail
Francis Mallory	Norman Mull
Hugh Stanton	Beryl Wesler
Madam Zora	Joan Williams

We sold refreshments at seven Basketball games. We sold pop, gum, popcorn, candy, sandwiches and ice cream. We have a nice sum of money to add to our Junior bank account.

We had a Christmas Party, December 20. We played games and had refreshments. Everyone had a nice time. A Christmas exchange was held later.

The great night finally came, our Junior and Senior Prom. It was held at Winchester, on April 14. We had a very nice banquet. After the banquet a dance was held. Everyone danced to the music of Hink and Dink.

Our class is very proud of the five boys that have helped make up our Basketball Team. We have ranked well in sports during '48-'49.

We had a 50-50 dance, December 1. We danced to the music of Peck Harter and his Band from 9 to 12. Ice cream, sandwiches, pop and candy were sold. Rose and white streamers hung from the ceiling. The walls were also decorated with streamers and pin-up lamps. Everyone had a very nice time.

We want to wish the Seniors of '49 lots of luck and success in the future. We are sure that they will be missed by everyone.

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORE NEWS

When we began our Sophomore year there were twenty-three of us. During the school year our ranks decreased until there are only twenty future Juniors now.

Donald Dale, our lanky cheerleader, moved to Centerville before the first of the year. Lorraine Le May returned to Richmond early in the year. William Eales has quit school, although he was here at the beginning of the year.

The first month of school was a time of election. The following were the results of our class election:

President	Richard Pence
Vice-President	Kenny Hughes
Secretary	Helen Ford
Treasurer	Peggy Melody
Reporter	Mabel Morrison

Since this was our first year of Senior High School, we established ourselves as the Class of "51" by choosing our class symbols. They were as follows:

Class Colors:	Orchid and White
Class Flower:	White Carnation
Class Motto:	"Do The Best You Can With What You Have."

We went into the "big business" of the Senior High School money-making system and had a very successful "Sophomore Candy Sale" early in the first semester. Then we had to spend some, too; our Christmas party was the answer. It was a "scandalous success"; we invited outside guests, took flash bulb pictures, and ate delicious refreshments. The "social whirl" was off with a bang. After those "telltale" exams and we were in the second semester, we presented our class assembly. We had our share of enjoyment in putting the little sketch, "Duel in the Sunshine," on for our delighted audience. Remember those four dancing girls; those rough, tough cowhands and the horse? In March we had our "Sophomore Benefit Movie", and again, our bank account swelled through everyone's help. So ended our class activities.

Playing our part in the high school activities our class won its share of honors. Helen Ford again captured the prize for Fall Carnival Queen. Perhaps it was just coincidence, but three members of the class tried for and won the "cheerleader" title as the Sophomores did in 1947-48, too. We felt proud of Peggy Melody, Helen Ford and Don Dale. When Don moved away, June Keller of the Class of '49 joined the two-some of the Class of '51 and the whole school was pleased with their co-operation and effort. We had practically the whole B Team on our roll call. The following Sophomores were on the team: Jim Buchanan, Rex Garber, Tom Huddle, Don Mansfield and Toad Steele. Rex Garber was also elected captain of the School Bus Patrol. Paul Jurgens was also a member of the Patrol. Randy Smallwood was one of the members of the New Safety Patrol, organized this year for safety on the streets.

We were busy Sophomores, in studies, in play and in fun. We'll remember that East room pleasantly, and hope you do, too.

FRESHMEN

FRESHMAN NEWS

Our class officers this year were elected as follows:

President	Jim Ray
Vice-President	Patty Hunt
Secretary	Bob Shock
Treasurer	Connie Pickett
News Reporter	Dick Knox
Assistant Reporter	Lorraine Ketron

We are glad we have a new library system. It is very nice and useful for us. We hope we can keep it as nice as it is.

Thursday, February 3rd, the girls that are in Home Economics started cooking for the first time this year. They enjoy it very much, even more than sewing.

The assemblies that we have had thus far this year have been very good and entertaining. Everyone has enjoyed them and hope that they continue.

This year some of the girls of our class are in the G.A.A. Club. We have had lots of fun.

All the girls in our class joined the Y-Teens and most of the boys joined the Hi-Y. We are proud to be members of the clubs and will do our best to live up to the standards that are required.

In October, our class had a class party at Jim Ray's home. We had a wiener roast and then played games and danced. Other refreshments besides the wieners were: cider, and donuts. We had a wonderful time.

We want to congratulate the Basketball Boys for playing such swell games this year, and hope that they continue the good work.

We played in the Carnival at Earlham. Monroe won, but we had a good cheering section anyway. We wish to thank Helen, Peggy and June for being such good cheerleaders.

The girls in Home Economics, went to Dayton and went to Rikes, McCalls and Singers. They spent all day over there, eating lunch at Rikes between tours. They had a lot of fun.

That is all the events this year. We hope the next year will be as much fun as this year was.

We wish the Seniors the best of luck.

HI-Y NEWS

The Hi-Y has completed another year. They added new members and did their many useful and good things.

Our officers elected this year were:

President	Jim Juday
Vice-President	Howard Ford
Secretary	Bob Copenhefer
Treasurer	Philip Nelson
Sgt. at Arms	Melvin Diggs
Chaplains	Gordon Arnold
	Beryl Wesler

Philip Nelson and Jim Juday represented the club at Camp Nelson Dodd. The two boys brought back a lot of valuable information.

We had our annual paper drive and played the Christmas music as is also done annually.

This year the club sold clothespins. This was a new venture, but it didn't prove too successful. Although, the club didn't grow rich with money, they gained a wealth of knowledge in salesmanship.

February the thirteenth, the club took a trip to Dayton to the Dayton Y.M.C.A. A good swim and a hearty meal was enjoyed by all.

Jim Juday, Norman Watts, and Mr. Sanders attended the National Hi-Y Congress at Miami. Other events were attended by members of the club and many useful things were learned.

Six Freshmen were inducted on February 6, at the Christian Church. The new members inducted were:

Marlin Markey	Robert Long
Allen Murray	James Ray
Duane Laird	James Arnett

We are very proud to have these new members and sincerely hope they will carry on and keep making the Jefferson Hi-Y a better club.

The club wishes to thank everyone who helped them this year and is sure everyone will co-operate in coming years.

Y-TEENS NEWS

Together with other members of the Young Women's Christian Association we declare our purpose to be:

"To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians.

In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share his love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

Our cabinet members for this year are as follows:

President	Martha Eales
Vice-President	Dorothy Thompson
Secretary	Helen Ford
Treasurer	June Keller

The special committees and their chairmen are:

Devotion	Deborah Jurgens
Music	LaVerne Diggs
Program	Joan Melody
Publicity	Berneice Martin
Scrapbook	Joan Williams
Service	Jeanne Moore
Social	Barbara Cail
Ways and Means	Peggy Melody

We, the Y-Teen Club members of New Paris, appreciate the many things the Y.W.C.A. Council has done for us. Their officers include:

President	Mrs. Robert Allen
Vice-President	Mrs. Harold Dine
Secretary	Mrs. Wilbur Cail
Treasurer	Mrs. Royden Johnson

We have had several important events this year. First, we'll tell you of our annual candlelight initiation. It was held at the Presbyterian Church, in September of 1948. Reverend Hugh Ronald gave a short talk. The new members include:

Patty Hunt	Ruth Anderson	Joan Nave	Ruth Petry	Barbara Garber
Connie Pickett	Norma Brown	Shirley Emmons	LaDonna Guenther	Zona Petry
Delores Dine	Lois Jurgens	Shirley Snyder	Lorraine Ketron	Mary Drook

The two girls who attended the Summer Conference at Westerville, during the summer of 1948, were Helen Ford and June Keller.

This year Lola Harshman and Martha Eales represented us at Richmond each month for this district.

We also had a food sale in the late fall at Thompson's Restaurant.

The Y-Teens gave some articles to the Y.W.C.A. Council for their rummage sale which was held in the fall.

We also gave toys to poor families at Christmas.

Lola Harshman was chosen as our nominee to Y.W.C.A. National Convention at San Francisco. A girl from Sunberry, Ohio was selected to represent our district by the board.

A Christmas party was given in honor of the Y-Teens by the Y.W.C.A. Council. It was held at the Masonic Hall, December 14. Games were played and refreshments served. There was also a twenty-five cent gift exchange.

Tournament favors were sold again this year by the Y-Teens. They were a pennant shaped pin, made of wood in our school colors. They also had the letters of "J.H.S." on them.

We gave money to the March of Dimes again this year.

We had our Valentine party, February 14. Each girl brought someone with her. We called the party a "Sweetheart Shindig."

The Y-Teens also conducted an Easter Program, they also had their annual May Day Breakfast given to them by the Y.W.C.A. Council.

A large group photograph of the 1954-55 Yearbook Staff. The group consists of approximately 40 students and two adults, posed in four rows in front of a brick building. The front row is seated at a long table, while the back three rows are standing. The students are dressed in mid-20th-century attire, including sweaters, blouses, and dresses. The photo is a black and white print with a white border.

FALL CARNIVAL

As the school years roll on, so do the carnivals and at Jefferson the "Annual Fall Carnival" was held.

It was a gay festival where everyone enjoyed himself, so let's turn back several pages and refresh our memories.

As we strolled down the halls we saw all kinds of booths. There were the "Fortune Tellers", ready to give you the old line about what was going to happen to you. Then there was the cake-walk, the nail-driving contest, the penny-throwing game, the basketball throw, the turtle race, and putting out candle flames with a squirt gun.

On down the hall all kinds of guessing games were held such as, "How many beans are in the jar."

The Cafeteria was busy all evening serving meals and suppers and everyone was eating hot dogs.

In the gym there was a "Sweet Shoppe" where we bought our homemade candies and candied apples besides donuts and cider.

Then there was the main event, "The Amateur Show" where school kids showed their talent. Paul Ray won first by singing, "A Tree in the Meadow". Second place was won by Doris Young and third place went to Shirley Leisure.

Elected "Queen of the Carnival" by public balloting of five-cents a ballot went to Helen Ford, a Sophomore, who has now won it two school years straight. She received ten dollars and a beautiful corsage.

Runner-up went to Senior, Donna Lou Brown, who received five dollars and a beautiful corsage.

Special mention went to Shirley Emmons, Delores Dine, and Connie Pickett who received corsages of chrysanthemums and yellow rose buds.

There was a movie in the auditorium which everyone enjoyed immensely which ended our annual Fall Carnival.

We are back where we started and we have refreshed our memories, so, let's look ahead for next year's carnival.

PRINCE OF PEACE

The Prince of Peace Contest was held on November 14, 1948 with two contestants. These were Robert Long, a Freshman, and June Keller, a Senior. The contest was held at the Methodist Church at 7:30 P.M. It so happened that both contestants had the same topic, "As the World Thinketh." June Keller won first place and received the Bronze Medal.

On December 5, 1948, June went to United Brethren Church in Eaton, Ohio to compete for winner in the County. She was defeated by a girl from West Alexandria, who was Iris Moses, also a Senior. June placed second in the County.

MARSHALL, CHARACTER IMPERSONATOR

On October 6th, Mr. Marshall, an impersonator was here at Jefferson Auditorium. He impersonated different characters, but centered them around the Shakespearean lines, "All the world's a stage. . . ." It was both interesting and amusing to hear him quote famous quotations and sayings.

He then disguised himself in all sorts of wigs, masks, and robes, as other characters of history.

POLOMENE POTTERS

Mr. and Mrs. Polomene gave a most interesting talk and exhibition of skill of the hands. This was the first assembly of this sort to have been scheduled at school. They made a large assortment of vases, bowls, and animals. They worked with a lump of clay, foot lathe, water, and their hands. They explained every process as they proceeded to make pottery.

COLE MARIONETTE

For a very unusual program we were entertained by the Cole Marionette. Marionettes are another name for puppets and are controlled by strings. They presented "King of the Golden River", a five-act play. The stage was changed between each act. Eight different actors were introduced. Everyone hopes they come back for a return performance next year.

DEEP RIVER QUARTETTE PERFORMS

The Deep River Quartette appeared before the grade and high school pupils Thursday morning, January 20th for a musical program. Many of the students' parents also were present at the assembly program. This is one of the many quota programs that were scheduled for this year.

The four men sang a large variety of negro spirituals, and light popular pieces and were called back for many encore numbers.

The two songs that seemed to be a favorite among the listeners were "Mood Indigo", and "My Blue Heaven."

Everyone hopes they will be scheduled for a return performance next year.

DR. SLUTZ

On February 3, 1949, Dr. Frank D. Slutz was at our school to answer questions for us. He spoke to grades seven through twelve. At 1:30 P.M. we assembled in the school auditorium. Beforehand we had written personal questions we would like for him to answer for us. They had been taken up and presented to him. Mr. Sanders, Superintendent, read our question aloud and Dr. Slutz would answer them in his own way.

Some of the questions were:

1. Dates on school nights.
2. Homework assignments.
3. Jobs after school.
4. What is Communism?
5. Better family relationships.

On the evening of February 3rd, Dr. Slutz talked to parents and older people at the P.T.A. Meeting. His talk was very interesting and it helped many people with their problems.

Dr. Slutz was sponsored by the P.T.A. and the Hi-Y Club.

MUSIC NEWS

This year, the Music Department had a new teacher, Mr. White. He came from Cambridge City, Indiana.

Everyone liked him very much. Mr. White has been very successful in our Music Department.

The Band was organized in September with fifteen members. Since then it has increased to twenty-two. The new members were: Paul Ray, from the fifth grade, David Kessler, from the fifth grade, Jim Bottoms, from the seventh grade, Barbara Garber, from the ninth grade, Shirley Leisure, from the seventh grade, Patty Moore, from the eighth grade, and Jim Miller from the eighth grade.

The Band played for the weekly assembly on January 28, 1949. They also put their best into it, and played for the Senior Commencement.

Kenneth Hughes, Norman Watts, Beryl Wesler, and Maurice Burden were chosen to play for the All-County Chorus held at the Eaton Football Field in May.

This year the Chorus started out with forty members. At the end of twelve weeks, twenty-eight were chosen for the Chorus.

The Chorus sang for the P.T.A. Christmas Program. They did a very fine job. They also sang for the Senior Baccalaureate Service.

The following people were chosen for the annual All-County Chorus held at Eaton, Ohio in May. Those chosen were:

Barbara Cail	Lola Harshman
Barbara Garber	June Keller
Mable Morrison	Jeanne Moore
Joan Williams	Jacqueline Hopkins
Joan Melody	Patty Hunt

The grade school hasn't done much in the line of entertainment except the splendid job they did for the P.T.A. Christmas Program. They put on a very new little skit called, "The Happiest Christmas."

BASEBALL 1948-1949

The Hornets started the 1948 season off with a tie game with Lewisburg, then playing Camden, Jackson, Lewisburg, and Monroe.

The pitching this season was mostly on the shoulders of Senior, Charles Andy, who compiled a two win and two losses record.

The hitting was carried on mostly by Nelson, Diggs, and Petry, with respective averages of .555, .357, .295.

Players having a perfect fielding records were Andy, Copenhefer, and Steele.

G.A.A. NEWS

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to create an interest in sports among girls.

The first meeting of the G.A.A. Club was held on October 14, 1948, and the following officers were elected:

President.....	June Keller
Vice-President.....	Lola Harshman
Secretary.....	Joan Melody
Treasurer.....	Donna Lou Brown
News Reporter.....	Joan Williams

Meetings of the club were held twice monthly. Several of our meetings were held during the evening, while others were during school hours.

A "Backwards Party" was given on November 8. Everyone was to wear some sort of costume backwards, to sit on their chairs backwards, to eat with the left hand instead of the right, and to eat dessert before the rest of the lunch. A prize was awarded to Miss Thatcher for the best dressed. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

It was decided to have as our sport events during 1948-'49, Volleyball and Basketball. Captains and assistant captains were chosen for each sport. They were as follows:

Volleyball:

Captain.....	Peggy Melody
Assistant Captain.....	Lola Harshman

Basketball:

Captain.....	Joan Melody
Assistant Captain.....	Donna Lou Brown

On December 20, the G.A.A. group went Christmas caroling. All of the girls carried lighted candles to make a more impressive scene. Afterwards refreshments were served at the home of Jacqueline Reid.

On January 17, a short meeting was held. We decided that a goal of 100 points was to be reached by each girl by the end of the school term in order to get a letter reward.

During this year we had some very enjoyable times at several activities, some of them were as follows: a sled party was held on February 21; March 21, a St. Patrick's Day Dance was sponsored; April 4, "Play Day" was held for our club and another school and last of all a party was held on May 6.

We wish to thank our sponsor, Mrs. Tracy, for her leadership in sponsoring our club. We also would like to extend our wishes for those of next year and years to come a successful and prosperous club.

JEFFERSON HORNETS

The Jefferson Hornets in a tough schedule of 17 games throughout the season, came up with 11 victories and six defeats for a percentage of .647 and fourth place in the Preble County League.

When tournament drawing came, the Hornets drew Jackson for its first tournament game, and lost to the Redskins. Then in the consolation, Jefferson downed Dixon and a good Monroe club, before losing to a scrappy College Corner team.

ADVERTISING

IN APPRECIATION

The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Nine wish to use this page to show our appreciation and thankfulness to the companies or individuals whose names are on these next pages.

We highly prize this Criterion, but we would not have been able to publish it if it had not been for the wonderful generosity of the advertisers, the high school faculty, and, undergrads.
